“This position is open to all qualified individuals and this position requires Union membership.”

Job Summary Provides support, security, advocacy, information, crisis response, referrals, and safety planning to residents and crisis line callers under the harm reduction model through an intersectional feminist approach.

Key Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Speaks with prospective residents and conducts intakes. Significantly reduces barriers for women and children accessing services. Orients and assists residents to settle in the house.
2. Using a women-centred approach, supports residents to define and meet their self-determined goals and to plan for their safety. Offers advocacy and assistance, provides information on resources available, and recommends appropriate services.
3. Provides emotional support, encouragement, goal setting, and problem-solving support to women and their children. Facilitates house and/or support group meetings.
4. Provides crisis intervention and risk assessment. Facilitates safety planning beyond the typical requirements to include sex work, substance use, mental wellness, and homelessness. Provides harm reduction supplies, discusses harm reduction strategies, and conducts well-being checks as needed.
5. Monitors and ensures the safety and comfort of residents and the security of the facility. Maintains a pet-friendly environment when the program allows. Facilitates resolution of conflicts between residents, which may include de-escalation of violence. Negotiates with residents whose behaviour is unpredictable and highly volatile to find ways for them to continue in the program.
6. Assists women with dependent care by providing emotional support to children and youth, monitoring and conducting developmentally appropriate recreational activities (such as craft projects and games) and attending to children's physical needs (which may include preparing meals, feeding, diapering, and toileting). Occasionally cares for children in the temporary absences of their mothers.
